

See the stars dancing around, shining gently on the dark sky, what a beautiful night!

Have you seen her?

She's brighter than ever,
and the clouds have disappeared,
to show the marvellous view

Have you seen her?

With her magnificent smile and her twinkling eyes,

Have you seen her?

Her wonderful stare,
and her silver pupils,

Have you seen her?

The night has suddenly changed

And the clouds, dark and voluminous have stepped out of the shadows with her beauty

Oh, the moon,

Have you seen her?
